

Galatians 4:1-7

Our salvation by faith in Jesus Christ is sufficient and complete.

I mean that the heir, as long as he is a child, is no different from a slave, though he is the owner of everything, 2 but he is under guardians and managers until the date set by his father. 3 In the same way we also, when we were children, were enslaved to the elementary principles of the world.

Do you believe your relationship with God is transactional?

4 But when the fullness of time had come, God sent forth his Son, born of woman, born under the law, 5 to redeem those who were under the law, so that we might receive adoption as sons.

To redeem ALL in adoption; chosen by God to have equal status and full rights

Eph 2:11-18: christ breaks down barriers, gives all humans access to God

Rom 5:6-13: Christ died for all sinners, to reconcile all to God.

You are God's adopted chosen. Broken free from elementary principles of the world and redeemed.

6 And because you are sons, God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, "Abba! Father!" 7 So you are no longer a slave, but a son, and if a son, then an heir through God.

Trinity completes your salvation

- 1) God the Father adopts you so you have the rights of a child.
- 2) The Holy Spirit regenerates our hearts and changes our nature to that of his child.
- 3) Jesus Christ, the Son, is the transition from hope under the law to the completion of our salvation upon the cross.

Col 1:19-20

19 For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, 20 and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross.

1 Peter 1:3-5

...born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, 4 to an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you
